

Invitation to authors:

Original articles and research papers are invited for publication in the Journal of Climate Change. These articles or papers should not have been published in part or whole elsewhere. All manuscripts will be peer reviewed and the responsibility of statements in the articles will rest entirely with the author(s). While signing the "Transfer of Copyright" agreement, the contributors should ensure that the copyrights include permission to reproduce any figure/illustration and table. Submission of a multi-authored manuscript implies the consent of all the participating authors. The manuscript may be sent electronically via email to jcc@capital-publishing.com along with the hard copy mail ad to Capital Publishing Company, 7/28, Mahaveer Street, Ansari Road, Daryaganj, New Delhi 11 0002, India. Manuscripts should not be sent on any other email addresses.

Instructions to authors:

Each papers should be accompanied by an Abstract not exceeding 250 words.

1. The manuscript should not exceed 15 A4 size pages or 4000 words including tables and illustrations. The editor reserves the right to adjust style to certain standards of uniformity. Research/Scientific/Short notes should generally not be more than six A4 pages.
2. Keywords (4- 5 only) and list of references should be supplied by the author(s). Tables and captions to figures should be typed on a separate sheet.
3. Names and addresses of at least three suitable reviewers may be submitted along with the manuscript but the editorial board will use these names only as a guidance and the review process will not be limited to this list only.
4. Illustrations should be line drawings in black. Laser printed figures are preferred. In case of photographs, originals may be sent. Figures/photographs should be identified with a number. All lettering should be done only by computer. Colour illustrations must be submitted as original photographs, high-quality computer prints or transparencies. Colour graphics or photos may invite page charges at the discretion of the editor and publisher.
5. References to unpublished work be avoided. International standards must be followed at all points of references eg. name(s) of author(s), year of publication, title, publisher, volume no. and page no. and must be checked thoroughly. Without volume, page number etc., of all cited references, manuscripts cannot be accepted for review. For example,
 - (a) Madhavan, N. and V. Subramanian (200 I). Fluoride concentration in river waters of South Asia. Current Science, 80: 1312-1319.
 - (b) Silva, E.I.L. (1999). Status of water quality in Sri Lanka. In: Recent trends in Environmental Biogeochemistry. V. Ittekkot and V. Subramanian (eds.). SCOPE publication, Hamburg University, Hamburg, Germany, 240 p.
6. In electronic form the manuscript should be sent on CD or via email to jcc@capital-publishing.com as MS word document as attachment. Scanned images of figures/photographs are accepted in CDR, JPG or TIFF formats. Colour illustration should use CMYK colour models and figures in font type ARIAL with font size 8 points. If there are a large number of colour images, please check with the editorial board before submission of manuscript.
7. All manuscripts should be accompanied by a signed statement, by one of the authors on behalf of all authors that
 - (a) transfer copyrights to the publisher
 - (b) an undertaking that the manuscript has not been submitted/accepted or published elsewhere.Until this statement is received, the manuscript processing will not start. The signed statement can be sent along with the hard copy.
8. Once a manuscript is submitted, a reference number will be assigned. This reference number should be used for all future correspondence. Till the referral process is over, editorial board does not entertain any direct communication to anyone of them.
9. Any communications sent to various distributors in different countries will not be responded.
10. All manuscripts fulfilling the above requirements including the signed statement should be sent electronically to jcc@capital-publishing.com.
The said address may also be used for contacting the Editor, if required, for any pre submission or post acceptance queries. All manuscripts will go through the review process and it may take 4/6 months before final acceptance. The acceptance of a manuscript is independent of subscription status. However it will be desirable that institution/author subscribe to the journal. For details please contact jcc@capital-publishing.com. Individual issues can also be purchased.

Author's copy of article:

The e-version of the relevant article will be sent to the author (first named/corresponding author in case of joint authors).

Letters to the editor:

Readers are encouraged to correspond on published articles. Any comments on individual article will be sent to the author for his comments. Bath of their communication will be published. Readers are also invited to bring to the attention of the Editorial Board any important news information etc. related to the theme of the journal. Such communication(s) will be published as 'Letters to the Editor' or 'Matter arising' section and no reprints shall be provided. Special issues of conferences can be brought out. Details should be discussed with the Editor at least six months before the due date.

Advertisement:

Instruments companies and book publishers are invited to insert advertisement. Rates can be obtained from the publisher.